SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

The East China Military Area plans to establish modern air defenses, including 24 radar stations, along the coastal areas during 1951. Radar stations under the East China Air Defense Command are to be placed at Weihaiwei, Tsingtao, Lienyun (119-30, 34-45), Ch'itung (121-42, 31-49), Ch'ungming (121-26, 31-38), Chushan (sic), Manhui (sic), Wenchow (120-38, 28-01), Foochow, Huian (118-48, 25-03), and Amoy. In early January Soviets began giving air defense training to 2,400 college and middle school students and workers. Three hundred of these will take a six-month course in radar operation techniques.
